from
Sheriff Gary W. Howard

News Release
Tuesday, September 29, 2015

During the evening hours on September 11, 2015, the Tioga County Sheriff's Office responded to a 911 call at the Xtramart Convenience Store in the Village of Newark Valley for the report of attempted robbery. The Sheriff's Office arrested 34 year old Travis J. Cornell of 216 Court Street, Binghamton, NY for Attempted Robbery in the first degree a class C felony. Cornell is accused of entering the store and displaying a knife to the clerk while demanding money from the cash register.

Cornell was arraigned in the Town of Newark Valley Court by Justice John Schaffer on September 15, 2015. He was remanded to the Tioga County Jail with no bail on the recommendation of the Tioga County District Attorney's Office. Cornell will be scheduled to appear in Tioga County Court at a later date. The Tioga County Sheriff's Office was assisted by The New York State Police and the New York State Division of Parole Binghamton Office. Anyone with information relating to this investigation is asked to contact the Tioga County Sheriff's Office Criminal Division at 687-1010.
