

The Tioga County Sheriff's Office is looking to hire a part time cook for our Jail. Cooks in the Jail use modern commercial equipment and the menus and recipes are determined ahead of time by the full-time Cook.

This is a great opportunity for anyone looking for extra income or to gain experience to build their resume. The person selected for the position will be given paid on-the-job training at the Sheriff's Office, as well as getting a Food Service Certification from Tioga County Public Health, paid for by the Sheriff's Office.

Candidates must meet one of the following qualifications:

- Graduated from high school or possess a high school equivalency diploma, preferably supplemented by special training for cooks and 6 months of satisfactory full-time experience or its part-time equivalent in large scale food preparation.

OR

- One year of satisfactory full-time experience or its part-time equivalent in large scale food preparation and preferably special training courses for cooks.

OR

- An equivalent combination of training and experience sufficient to indicate the ability to perform the work.

Anyone interested in this position is encouraged by either applying online at <https://www.tiogacountyny.com/departments/personnel-civil-service/> or in person at Tioga County Personnel & Civil Service Department at 56 Main St., Owego, NY.
